

Getting Help

Have this ready before you call:

- | Your phone number, address and company name.
- | Machine model and serial number.
- | The version of the software you are running.
- | A description of what the machine was doing.
- | Whether the fault repeats.

Not Markers

I A lone line like this one is prose, not a list.

Three lines beginning with a real word follow.

A bird flew past the window.

A second one followed it south.

A third stayed on the wire.
